"For the days are dark,
And the work is great,
And the time is slipping away.
So whatever we think of Doing for God,
We had better do it TODAY."

Editorial

Are you building for Time or Eternity?

Time is an allotted, appointed, fixed or customary moment or hour for something to happen, begin or end. Ecclesiastes 3:1 declares, "to everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven."

"In which time Moses was born." Acts 7:20. Moses was born in a time of grave and serious trouble and God's cause appeared lost. But God has a plan, and step by step the Divine Plan unfolded. John the Baptist, too, came at the right time to pave the way for the coming of the Messiah. We often entertain the thought that we could be better and braver Christians if we were living a generation ago, or a hundred years in the future. But would we really? We, too, have been born in our time for a purpose. God wants to use us in His plan, as we are, where we are, and NOW. The condition is that we seek His will and offer ourselves to Him.

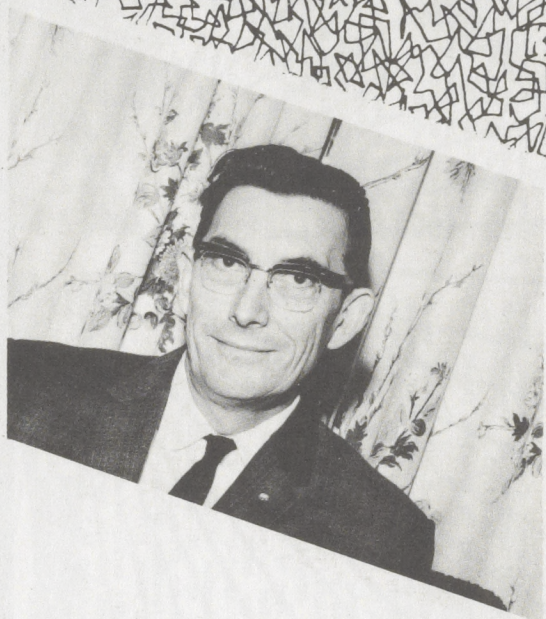

Much thought should be taken in making our lives count for Jesus Christ, for what we sow in time we will reap in eternity. Christ's words in John 9:4 are, "I must work the works of Him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work." How much more should we seek to serve Him who lived in time, and died for our sins to give us eternal life. Our lives should tell daily for Jesus for our time here on earth is limited. "Only one life, 'twill soon be past. Only what's done for Christ will last.

Eternity with our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is our inheritance as a Christian. What more is necessary to cause us to fully surrender our lives to God? We should strive to make Philippians 1:21 our motto: "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." Time is quickly coming to an end, so our pledge should be: "Do it NOW! Today will be yesterday tomorrow."

Ruth Matheson.

Dedication

Dear Brother Burnside:

This is your yearbook! It's yours, not simply because you are the Dean of F.G.B.I. or belong to our Bible School family, but because we are dedicating it to you.

Your life, Brother Burnside, has been full, and one in which the Lord has had His hand. When you were eighteen, you came face to face with the vital issues of life and made your decision to accept Christ. While farming in Pangman, you became grounded in the Word and it was there that God gave you an abiding burden and love for young people. Your greatest joy is to see each one of us going deeper daily into spiritual things.

Although you had a vision for the work of our Bible School and helped to bring it into existence, you became more directly involved in 1956 when you became Business Manager. Four years later you were appointed Dean and with this appointment you accepted the responsibility of sharing the joys and woes of all of us.

This book we dedicate to you humbly, and with our gratitude. We thank you for your help, your understanding, your wise counsel, your inspiration, and advice. Brother Burnside, this is your yearbook!

*Signed,
The students of F.G.B.I.*

Statement of Faith

1. Verbal Inspiration of the accepted Canon of the Sacred Scriptures as originally given. (2 Tim. 3:16; 1 Cor. 2:13)
2. The Tri-Unity of the Godhead. (Matt. 28:19; Gal. 3:20)
3. The creation, test and fall of man, as recorded in Genesis; his total spiritual depravity and inability to attain to divine righteousness. (Rom. 5:12, 18)
4. The Saviour of men, the Lord Jesus Christ, conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, very God and very man. (Luke 1:30-35; John 1:18; Isa. 9:6)
5. The Gospel of the Grace of God, how that Christ died for our sin, was buried and rose again the third day for our justification. (1 Cor. 15:1-4; Rom. 4:25)
6. The salvation of sinners by Grace alone, through faith in the perfect and sufficient work of the Cross of Calvary, by which we secure remission of sins. (Eph. 2:8, 9; Heb. 9:12, 22; Rom. 5:1)
7. The bodily ascension of Jesus to Heaven. His exaltation and His personal coming for His Church. (John 14:2, 3; 1 Thess. 4:13-18), and His rule of the Nations of the earth for one thousand years. (Zech. 14:4, 5, 9; Isa. 11:1-4; Rev. 20:6)
8. Water Baptism of Believers by immersion in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. (Acts 19:5; 10:47, 48; 8:37, 38)
9. The Baptism with the Holy Spirit as an experience subsequent to Salvation, with the Scriptural evidence, namely, speaking in tongues. (Acts 8:14-17; 10:44-46; 2:1-4; Gal. 3:14, 15)
10. The Gifts of the Spirit as enumerated in 1 Corinthians, Chapters 12 to 14 being exercised and practiced as manifest in the early Church.
11. The Spirit-filled life, a life of separation from the world, and the perfecting of holiness in the fear of God as an expression of Christian faith. (Eph. 5:18; 2 Cor. 6:14; 2 Cor. 7:1)
12. The healing of the body by Divine Power, or Divine Healing in its many aspects practiced by the early Church. (Acts 4:30; Rom. 8:11; 1 Cor. 12:9; Jas. 5:14)
13. The Lord's Memorial, commonly called Supper, for Believers. (1 Cor. 11:23-32)
14. The Eternal Life of the Believer. (John 5:24; 10:28), and the Eternal Punishment of the Unbeliever. (Mark 9:43-48; 2 Thess. 1:9; Rev. 20:10-15)
15. The Reality and Personality of Satan. (Job 1:7; 2 Cor. 11:14)

"God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in Spirit and in truth." John 4:23, 24.

Principal's Message

Time changes, and changes of the times help to make us time conscious. "Our time of being in and of the earth is almost over," so wrote Ray Bradbury in "LIFE," September 14, 1962. Almost 2,000 years ago, Paul wrote, "it is high time to awake out of sleep." Romans 13:11.

This dispensation began with preachers of the Bible "turning the world upside down." Christians were Bible believers, Bible lovers and Bible students.

But TIME brought changes. The educated priesthood kept the Bible from the common people. History records the sad result: the Dark Ages.

TIME saw the rise of a new day. The Reformation with its "back to the Bible" emphasis made the Bible available to the common people.

The German language was stabilized by Luther's Bible, and the English language was stabilized by the English Bible. A foundation was laid for education of the masses.

Education in English-speaking lands was solidly based on the Bible. TIME has again brought changes. As Dr. Witmer states, "education today is in a far country."

When education departs from a Bible foundation it becomes dangerous and perhaps, time will reveal, often devilish. TIME has proven that it is better to be educated in the Bible without a College education, than to be educated in College without a Bible education.

There is a place for higher education, a very necessary place. Education in its place is a very wonderful thing.

But let us face this fact: "Japan is educated but she is heathen." Education cannot remove heathen darkness.

If for no other reason, this reason alone makes the work of Bible school extremely important. The entrance of God's Word giveth light. Eternity will reveal the important place the Bible has had in TIME.

L. O. Pritchard

President's Message

Man has never been more time conscious than he is today. Yet, never has man been more ignorant of time than he is today. Jesus upbraided the Pharisees and Sadducees of His day because they could discern the "face of the sky," but could not discern "the signs of the times." What would He say of our ignorance when we have the complete revelation of His word in the Bible, and the many fulfillments of prophecy around us which clearly indicate "the signs of the times"?

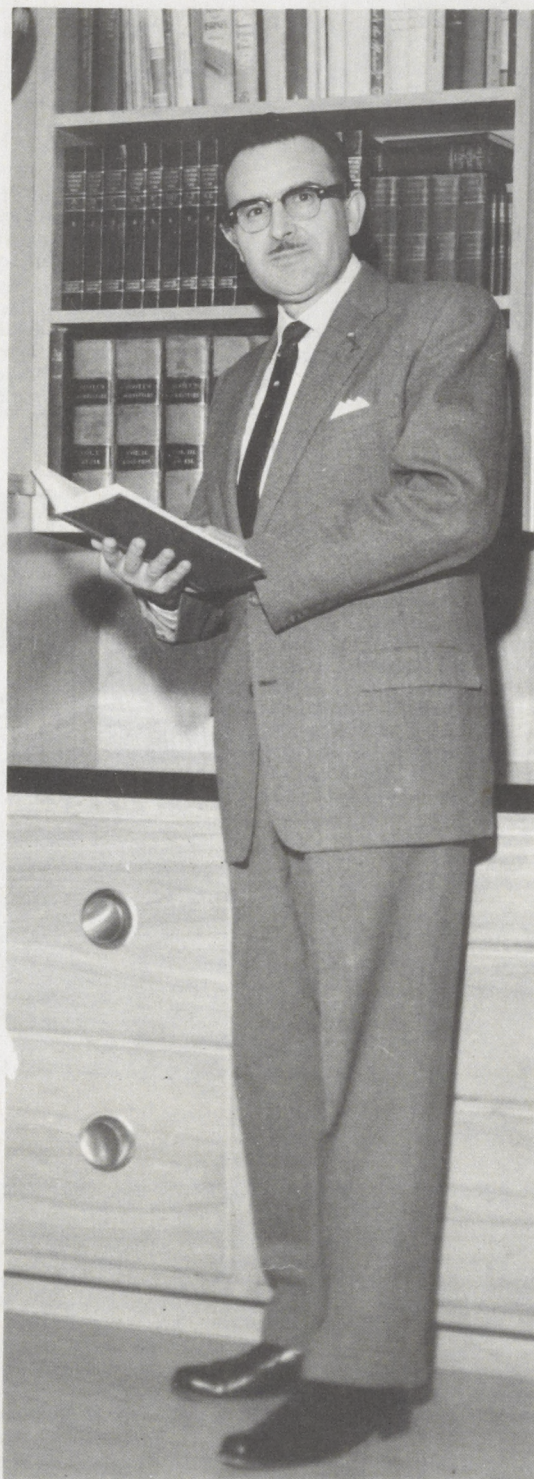

Both the Bible and history abound with examples of the disasters and confusions which result when man is ignorant of time.

Here are a few excerpts from God's official time clock, the Bible, which clearly tell the time and the hour of our day. The time in which we live is called, "the times of the reformation." That is, we are no longer living under the time of the Old Covenant (or Testament), but under the New Covenant (or Testament) of God's grace. It is ignorance of this time which is responsible for so much confusion and error in our day.

The Bible calls our era, "the time of the end," "the last times," the "perilous (or awful) times" which God predicted would come. No wonder we are exhorted, "And knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep," for "the time is short," and we need to "redeem the time because the days are evil." Never before was it more true than now, that "it is time to seek the Lord."

If you are unsaved, it is time to be saved, for "now is the accepted time." Tomorrow will be too late. Yes, it is later than you think.

Allen C. McLean

TIME is a magic word. We are made conscious of time by such sayings as "Time is shorter than it used to be." We somehow feel that time is controlled by the calendar or watch, but we could do away with these and it would go on just the same.

The danger we are facing today is not in the fact that we have no time to do the things we would like to do, but rather in that we fail to recognize the lateness of the hour. In fact, the truth of I Cor. 7:29, "The time is short," is upon us. World events are not calculated by the calendar or the watch but rather by God who has set a time for everything.

There was a time set for Christ's birth. It was first prophesied in Gen. 3:15 and was fulfilled as we read in Gal. 4:4, "And so when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his son."

Then, too, as we look at the nation of Israel, we realize what time it is, for the scripture declares that Israel in the last days would return to their own land. This is now being fulfilled today. More signs of the times that could be considered: peace talks, world disarmament, Antichrist or one man rule. These convey to us the lateness of the hour. The saying "It is later than you think" is true. "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation."

Robert J. Wilson

Time is a measured or measurable interval; an allotted period during which something must be done. "Now" is the time. Time is earthly duration as distinguished from eternity. Eternity is forever. Our earthly sojourn is but an infinitesimal moment of eternity; as it were, but a thought in infinity. Therefore the Christian, sent of God as His representative, knows that time is running out. He must take the message of salvation to those who know not Christ and His saving power NOW. He knows that everything remains but for a time; that all things are frail and fleeting. "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven." Ecclesiastes 3:1.

"For He remembered that they were flesh; a wind that passeth away and cometh not again." Psalm 78:39. Therefore He says, "Go out quickly . . . and bring . . ." Luke 14:21. Bring the straying to the fold. Tell them that Jesus save "Trust Him at all times ye people. Put out your heart before Him. God is a refuge for us." Psalm 62:8.

Edith Dodds

"Time waits for no man," is a saying that is driving men to wreck their bodies and damn their souls, because they feel they have not time to stop and consider. Job 37:14. "Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God." Ecclesiastes 3:1. "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven." 2 Corinthians 6:2. "Behold, now is the accepted time, behold, now is the day of salvation." Now is the time to be saved from wrecking one's self. The Psalmist said "my times are in thy hands." We so often sing "My Times are in Thy Hands." My God I wish them there, and it never becomes anymore than a wish, for as soon as we finish singing, our minds race to find an answer for the problems we face tomorrow, when all the time God is the answer. We miss the blessing that God wants to give, in not realizing that My God is the God of all time. Moses commanded the people "stand still and see the salvation of the Lord." If God is my salvation, how do I act? I trust I have considered the situation. Romans 13:11. "And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed."

J. R. Burnside

We are "time" conscious today. Man's allotted time is the proverbial three score years and ten. God has given us time as an illustration of His eternal power and Godhead. There is the past, present and future. Time is not one of these but all three are the unit we call time. Some live in the past, a majority live for the present, while others are wholly taken up with the future. Sanity demands that we consider all three for a full orb'd life.

God called Himself the "I AM," The Ever Present One. Jesus did likewise, and SO HE IS. The "I AM" is accessible today as the One "Who ever liveth to make intercession for us." Some view the future with alarm but we are assured it is as bright as His wonderful promises. The "I AM" says "NOW is the day of Salvation" and again "NOW if ye will hear My voice." The future depends on what you do NOW. God "requireth the past." Faith in His blood justifies from all sin of the past; the "present" is vibrant with His word as a light and lamp, while the future holds this, "In His presence is FULLNESS OF JOY . . . pleasures forevermore."

Albert Marshall

"My Times are in Thy hand." Psa. 31:15. These words cause my heart to rejoice, and with the rejoicing I am sobered as I realize that, "Ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price." How good to know and experience that, as our wills are conformed to His will, we can face each day with peace in our hearts. We cannot see the path He has for our lives and many times we need to remember that Jesus said, "My ways are not in your ways," but what joy there is in being led in His way in His time.

I do count it a privilege to serve the Lord in the capacity of Secretary of F.G.B.I. and to have a small part in seeing young people's lives molded and channeled to better serve the Saviour. God's Word tells us, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might." In order to know God's best I believe we must give Him our best. It is the desire of my heart that I will be a yielded vessel for Him to use whenever and in whatever field of service he chooses because, "my times are in His hand."

Agnes Hall

It seems we are always running out of time. In the horse and buggy days, people accepted the speed of the horse and everything else went accordingly. They had lots of time for long hours of work, lots of time for leisure and a great many had time for spiritual things too.

But today we are in the Jet Age. Now we can speed down the highway in modern comfort and safety. Astronauts have actually gone around the world several times in only a few hours. Distances are now shrunk by fast jet airlines and continents and countries are now only hours away.

Still, we seem to have even less time than before. Now we hurry, hustle and just barely make our many appointments, even with our greatly increased speed. People seem to need a thirty hour day, an eight day week and a forty day month to accomplish their many tasks and responsibilities.

But God has given us only so much time. Whatever we are to accomplish, we must do NOW. We must make every day and every minute count, NOW. We must train young men and women NOW, to take the Gospel out while there is still time. The Bible says, "Behold, NOW is the accepted time; behold, NOW is the day of Salvation." Let us make the most of our time, NOW.

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye." Psa. 32:8.

The Lord truly does instruct and teach us in the way that we are to go. There may be things that arise which seem to us real problems and trials, yet through it all we come out with victory in Christ. I certainly thank the Lord for His guiding hand in and upon my life; also for those things He teaches us along the way. It is a real privilege to be serving the Lord this winter as a cook at F.G.B.I. My prayer is that whatever the Lord has for me to do, whether great or small, I may do it as unto Him with the strength He has given me. "Only to be what He wants me to be every moment of every day"—a yielded vessel fit for the Master's use.

Rosemary Walker

For me it has been a real blessing and a privilege to cook here at Bible School this past winter. With so many students here this year, there is a great deal of extra work to be done, but I do thank the Lord for each one who has come to study God's precious Word. It is so wonderful to have the Lord to rely on for the strength we need from day to day. Without Him we could not carry on.

I do thank the Lord for his great love to me and for his hand upon my life. John 9:4 says, "I must work the works of Him that sent me, while it is yet day: for the night cometh, when no man can work."

As children of God, we should be made to realize that the night is fast approaching and it is time we did something about it. I pray that God will use me in His harvest field while it is yet day.

Grace Walker

"For the which cause I also suffered these things nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." 2 Timothy 1:12

As I look at the tension and uncertainty in this world today I am thankful that I know Jesus Christ as my Saviour. The Bible tells us that this world is reserved unto fire against the Day of Judgment. As I look at the fulfillment of prophecy, exploding world population, the attainments of science, increasing ungodliness, and man's ability to destroy, I feel judgment must be near. Jesus is coming soon.

I thank the Lord not only for His power to save but also for His promise that "He is able to keep that which I have committed to Him."

Part Time Faculty

The privilege of sharing precious Bible truths with the student body of the Full Gospel Bible Institute has been a great blessing over these past years, since 1950, when I spent my first month on the Teaching Staff.

To enjoy the illuminating power of the Holy Spirit upon the Word of God, I, as a teacher, have partaken of the very bread myself, while giving it to others. The ministry of Evangelism and Missions, so near to my heart, has found fertile soil in the F.G.B.I. classrooms. What a thrill to see the consecrated action over the years on the fields of service! To have a part in preparing students for this outreach is indeed a "high privilege" for this unworthy servant.

Art E. Sheppard

The paradox of these times is that they are both glorious and wonderful days and they are also days that are dark and foreboding. Glorious days because they harmonize with Bible prophecy and point with thrilling accuracy to the return of Jesus Christ for His Church. They are dark and fearsome days because they also indicate the nearness of the awful wrath of God that is soon to be poured out upon this world of unbelievers.

Lecturing on the prophetic book of Jude and with that, teaching on the "Fruit of the Spirit," is certainly related to the theme of our yearbook for 1962-63: "Time is running short."

Cecil Rhodes

The Apostle Paul called the Philippian church to evangelism when he, by the Spirit, coined the words, "That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world." Phil. 2:15. The spiritual darkness on every hand calls for total mobilization of the Church for the final task of evangelization. Millions of hands are still reaching out for the first blessing, while we have had more than the second blessing.

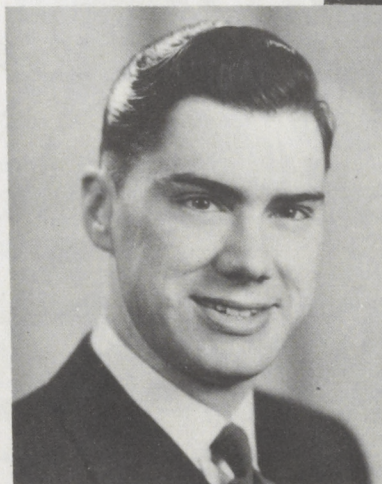

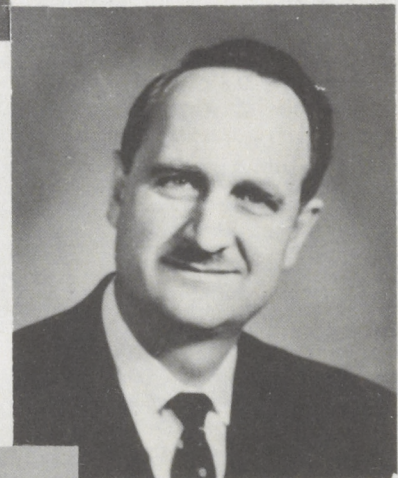

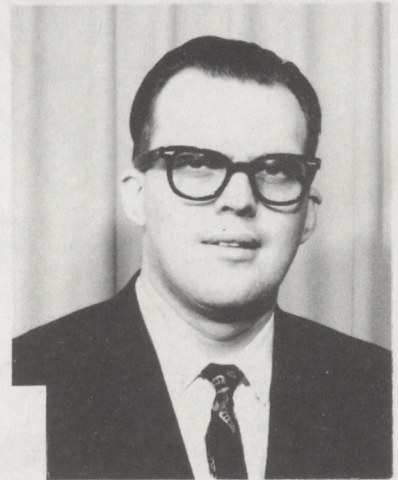

Cecil Rhodes expressed the urgency of this hour when he said, "So much to do, so little time." Time should be bought up for the largest profit, and used to the best advantage. Things that matter most in life are expressed in the following three questions. What am I? What am I doing? Where am I going? Yes, you may not be a murderer in the real sense. But, DO YOU KILL TIME? You can do something with any waste, except wasted time. On the dial at All Soul, Oxford, there is this inscription: "The hours perish, and are laid to our charge."

J. Kosick

In a sense time has always been short, when compared with eternity. However, students of the Scriptures agree that our opportunities for service for Christ are definitely limited. This is true, not only because of the brevity and uncertainty of life itself, but also in view of the soon return of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The race for the minds of men is narrowing with Cultists and Communists fully exploiting all modern means of mass communication. The secular press sends forth a never-ending stream of seductive and suggestive literature to corrupt the minds of our young people. Because of this, Christian young people need to become acquainted with and challenged by the tremendous potential of a writing ministry. A contribution is made in this direction through our classes in Christian journalism where the elementary principles of good writing are presented.

Presidents' Address

It was once said, "We do not stand in the world and bear witness to Christ but stand in Christ and bear witness to the world."

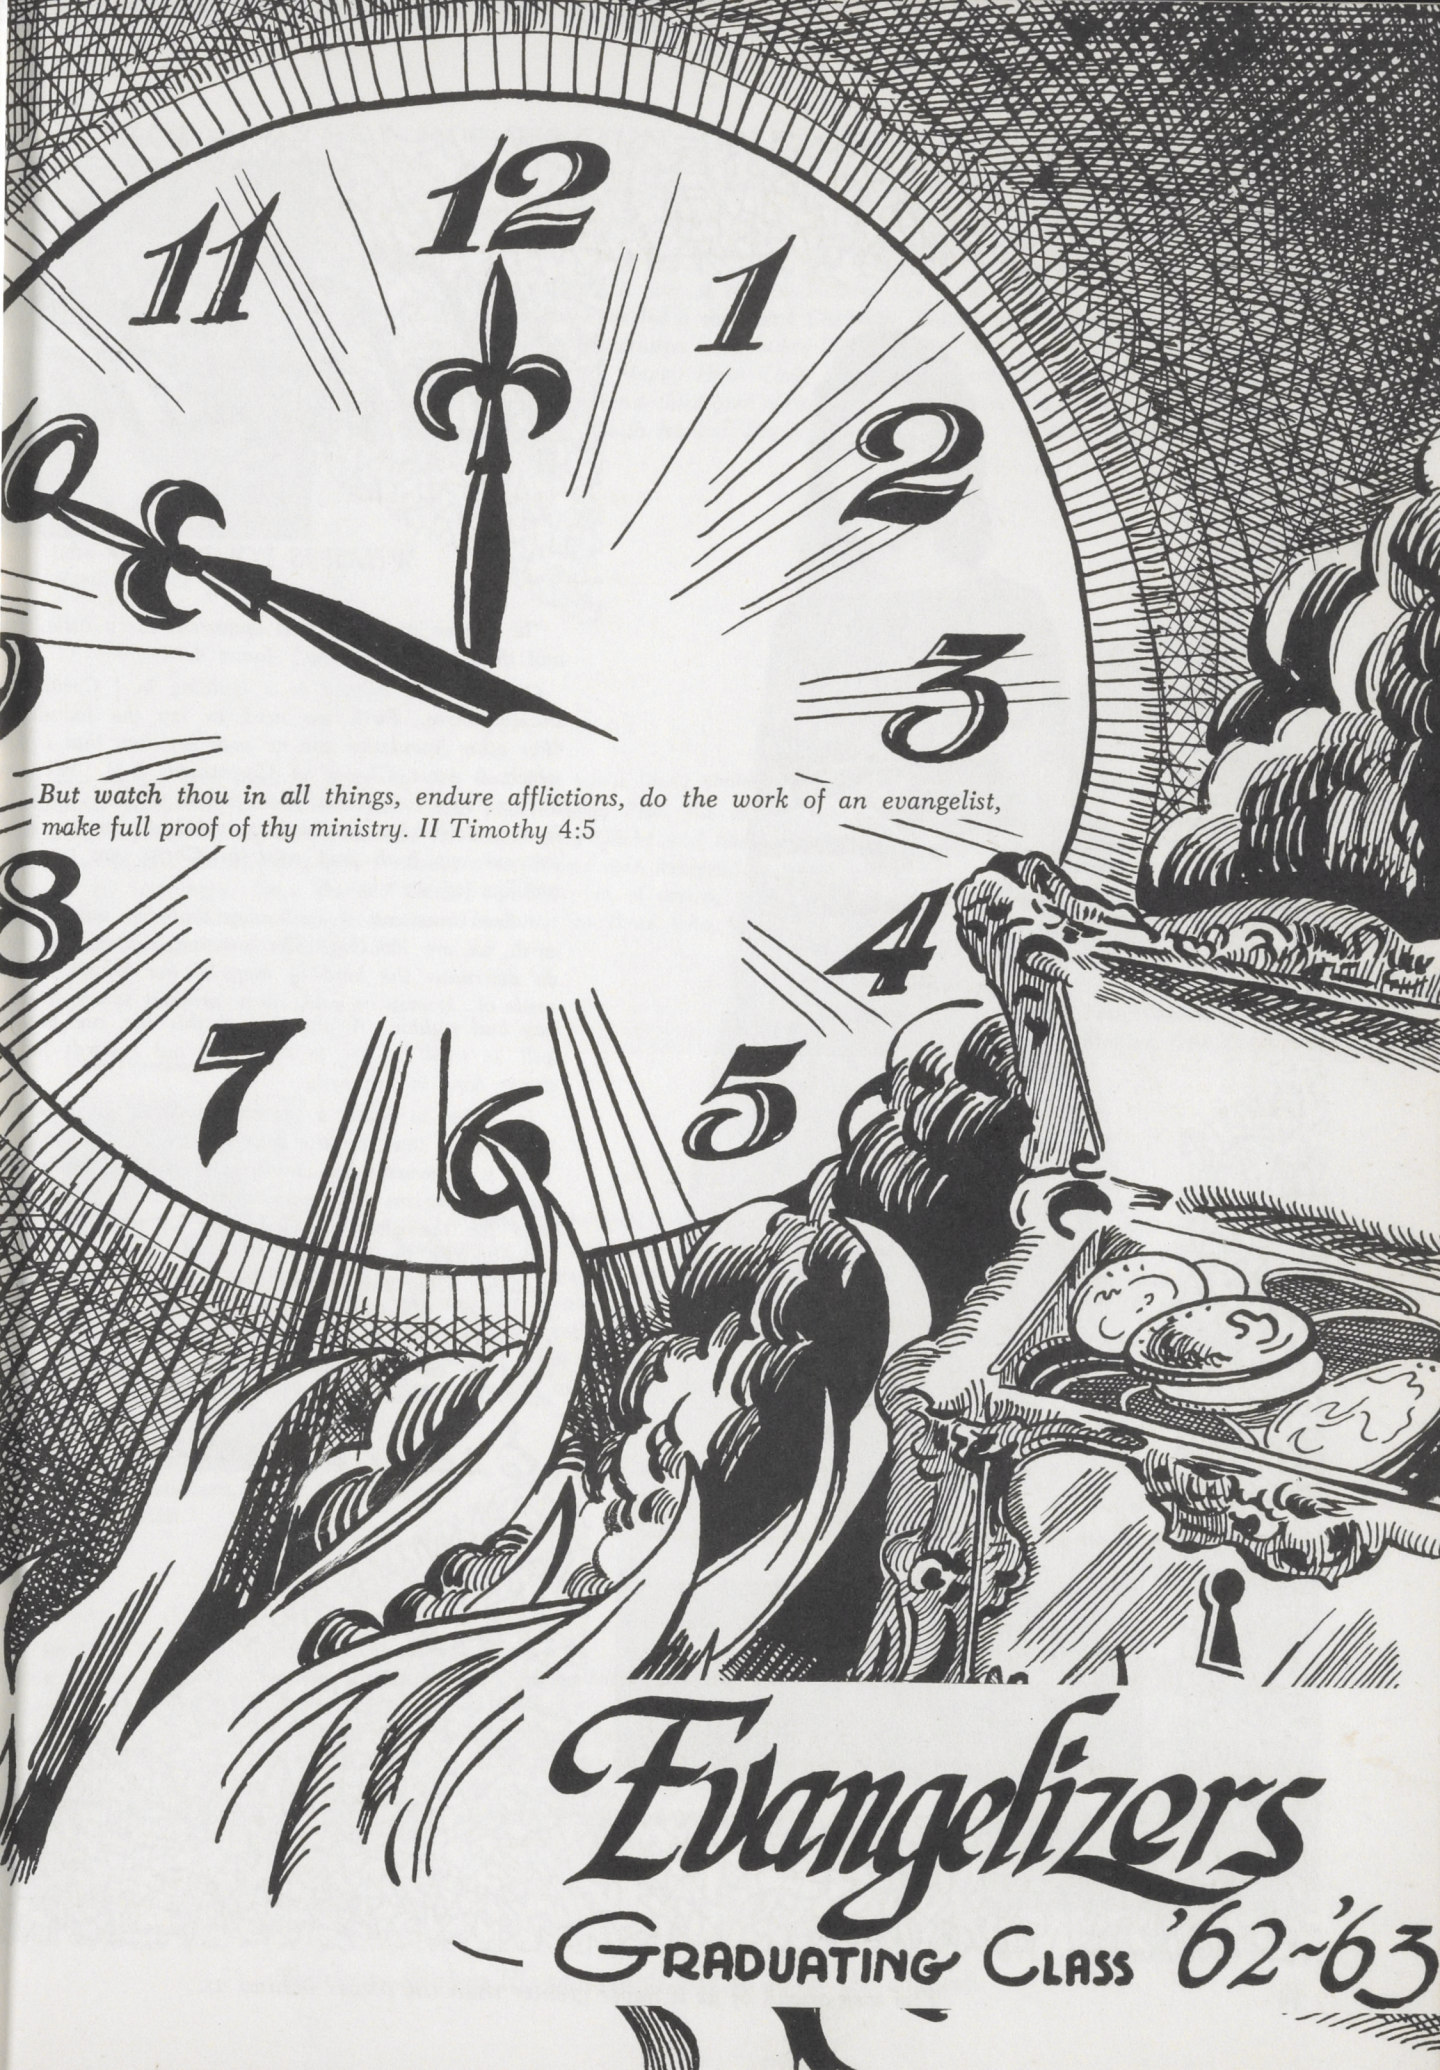

In our first year Brother Sheppard was teaching Personal Evangelism, and as he told of the need of the Holy Spirit in our lives the lecture turned into a prayer meeting. After the prayer meeting, Brother Sheppard suggested the name "Evangelizers" for our class.

Our original class had 27 members. In our second year we were sorry that not all our classmates were able to return, but we were glad to have Shirley Shaw added to our number. In this, our third year, Rodney McClain joined us. Our graduating class now consists of 19 members.

We are reaching out to a generation in peril. Thus each member of the class wishes to follow the great commission of Mark 16:15: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." The Lord has a work for each of us to do and as we follow His will, we will have a part in evangelizing the world.

WHAT IS YOUR LIFE?

"It is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time and then vanisheth away." James 4:14.

Our lives are likened to a building in I Corinthians chapter three. First, we need to lay the foundation. "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid which is Jesus Christ." I Corinthians 3:11. We need a firm, sure foundation upon which we can build our lives, and God has graciously provided one for us. When we put our faith and trust in Christ, we can start building for eternity.

Each moment of each day that we live on this earth, we are building. The way we live and what we do determine the kind of material our houses will be made of. It may be gold, silver, precious stones or wood, hay and stubble. At the end of this life, our building will be tried by fire to determine our rewards for things done in this body.

In order to build a stalwart building, we need to "redeem the time, for the days are evil." Ephesians 5:16. Time is redeemed when we carefully embrace and improve all the occasions and opportunities granted to us to be used for the glory of God. Let us not allow these opportunities to be stolen from us by the cares and thoughts about this world. The coming of the Lord is very near. We may not have much time left in which to build. Let us double our diligence and make our lives count for eternity. Remember, how we use today determines how tomorrow will use us.

John Franson,
North Surrey, B.C.

John's testimony is ever of the goodness of the Lord. During the last three winters at Bible School he has led a consistent Christian life, always keeping in mind that time spent in Eston is preparation for a future life in service. His activities? They are many—he's leader of Brock Happy Hour Club, head of the yearbook sales committee, African prayer band leader, and third-year class president. Recesses are spent playing a quickie game of ping pong with his pal, Dave. F.G.B.I. will miss the quiet, steadying influence of the B.C. boy.

If you should keep track of Betty for just one day, you'd likely conclude that she accomplishes everything at a dead run! Little Miss Energy Plus, she claims her pet eve is "Slowpokes." Betty keeps in close fellowship with Christ and has a burden to souls saved and gospel works grow. Always cheerful and even-tempered, it seems you can't get her angry. Once she has decided upon a plan of action, there's just no stopping her. Her pretty, talkative eyes reveal volumes to those who know her best. We're proud that Betty's an Evangelizer!

A light in her eyes, song on her lips and a bubble of joy in her heart—this briefly summarizes our optimistic Ellen. She's vice-president of the third year class, and the leader of our largest Happy Hour Club, Eston Primaries. You'll never find her idle for the smallest moment—the result of this energetic spirit is success in all that she does. Ellen has devoted many summers to D.V.B.S. and camp work, gaining rich experience which will profit her well in the future. Her musical talent and leadership qualities we know, she will use well for the Lord.

The Lord has given Lionel a colossal resounding voice, which he uses mainly for making melody and for holding the fascinated Happy Hour audiences at Eatonia. Inspired by the great out-of-doors, Lionel loves to go hunting or adventuring for you see, he's a woodsman at heart. Faithfully each Sunday he preaches the Word at Brock. He isn't satisfied unless he is in the Lord's work, he declares. While his convictions are steadfast, his outlook on life is easy going and he's never worried or down-hearted. We love Lionel most when he raises one eyebrow and says, "Lord bless you, sister!"

George Coleman,
Winnipeg, Man.

Church History, Old Testament history, any kind of history — George knows all dates! Gratis this year has been the kind that he likes best — work in the printing press. George has spent long hours at the press, turning out jobs for the school, faculty, Happy Hour or banquet committee. Whatever would we have done without his proficiency? As leader of Indo-Asia Prayer Band, he has constantly presented the needs and encouraged prayer for this far-off field. Always ready with a word of testimony, George's life will be one of service for his Master.

Canadianized yet? Not quite, and we hope he never will be for we love Trevor for just being his thoroughly Irish self. Having a burning passion for evangelism, signs, wonders, and miracles, and sound Bible doctrine, Trevor has committed much Scripture to memory. There's a "certain something" about him that little duffers seem to idolize and he's been most successful as the leader of our Eatonia Happy Hour Club. Trevor worked at taping his daily radio broadcasts for KARI, and we have all admired his self-sacrificing venture. Being yielded, he'll be used.

David Matson,
Veteran, Alta.

Deep-thinking and independent Dave studies and searches the Scriptures for himself, drawing his own carefully-calculated conclusions. He's justifiably proud of his mission parents and we were honoured to have Bro. and Sis. Matson speak to us the opening week of Bible School last October. Being a sports enthusiast, it's not unusual to find him in the ping pong room or out on the rink. The intriguing sights and sounds of foreign lands have given Dave a hankering to see the world and experience an occasional adventure.

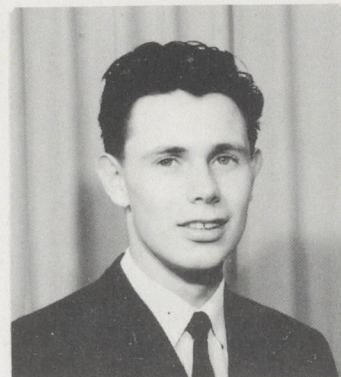

Pert and pretty, our junior homemaker's cheerfulness is so bubbly, that others catch it too. Deanna possesses simple faith in Christ and His Word, and desires the realities of a closer walk with Him. Constantly looking on the bright side of things, when troubles come, all you'll hear her say is, "That's life!" Talented musically, she plays the accordion but is heard most often harmonizing with Allan. Even though she's Mrs. Graham this year, Deanna still makes faces when Bro. Marshall uses big words! Stay as sweet as you are!

Deanna Graham,

Congenial and sociable, Wade can cheer most anyone with his warm and friendly smile. Possibly he is one of the most widely-read individuals we know — everything from Shakespeare to Dr. Barnhouse. Never happier than when he's on skates, Wade is lithe, wiry, and athletically inclined. Could it be that his yearn for travel and his spirit of wanderlust will take him around the world? His activities this year have included vocalizing in the Bible School choir and praying on the African prayer band. We know the Lord has His hand on Wade's life.

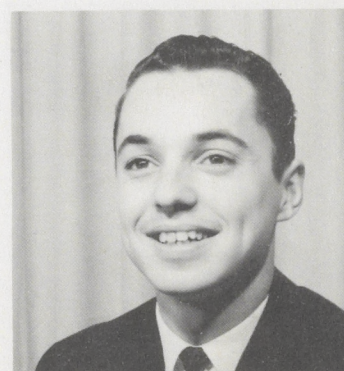

Wade Likness,
Manning, Alta.

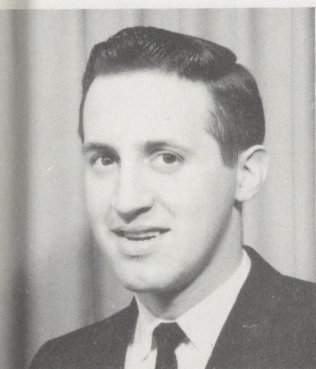

Norma Jacobson,
Souris, Man.

Norma knows where true happiness is found and it's walking in the Lord's appointed way. Unselfishly and wholeheartedly she has devoted many of her hours to the work of Eston Assembly's Pioneer Girls Club. When it comes to Scripture, Norma is "in the know"; when it comes to prayer, Norma knows how, the yearbook having been her special burden this term. Tactful and a real psychologist, never be surprised to hear her say, "Want to write a letter to one of my relatives?" Besides all this, Norma is a connoisseur of perfumes. Dorm 2 girls will miss her good advice.

Daniel, a real "Boon" to F.G.B.I. as our Student Council President, and Happy Hour Club Director, has proved himself to be versatile and useful in many phases of the Lord's work. He is noted for his originality — who else would have thought of forming the Luthernaires Choral group? Prayer plays a vital role in Danny's spiritual life as he is diligent and faithful in his daily devotions. Often master of ceremonies, his quick-witted manner and song-leading abilities have been appreciated on the platform. We know the Lord will use him in His service.

Daniel Moe,
Vancouver, B.C.

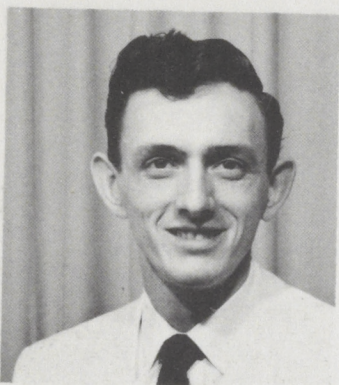

Allan Graham,
Glasgow, Scotland

Allan, our reserved Scottish classmate, is studious, and learned in the Scriptures. He is faithful and brave for the cause of Christ. It seems only logical that he be the leader of the European Prayer Band since his deepest burden is for that continent. Last October Allan was Scriptural in "a good thing" when he and Deanna were married. Christian Evidence is important to him as he has had opportunity to present these arguments in witnessing for Christ. Having musical birthright, Allan is truly talented, playing piano, organ, accordion and just about anything else he chooses to try.

Magnitudes of truth germinate in solitudes with God.

Rodney McClain,
Edmonton, Alta.

An artist with a flair for line and design, Rodney is the head of our yearbook committee. Next time you visit F.G.B.I. notice the class banners in the dining hall — three of them are Rod's work. It's no secret that he has his heart in evangelism and that he is going deeper in the things of the Lord. Though he is new to our Evangelizers club, we've come to appreciate his jolly infectious laugh. Since he has a knowledge of things culinary, an aspiring Sunday-morning cook often asks, "Rod, will you please mix my pancake batter?"

A heart for the Lord, a buoyant personality, and a host of helpful services for many belong to Nesta. One could describe her thus: socially — pleasing conversationalist; recreationally — ping-pong expert; mentally — alert and busy; creatively — designer of original greeting cards; vocally — member of F.G.B.I. choir; instrumentally — pianist for a male quartet; prayerfully — for Home Mission; characteristically — likes a challenge, willing to help, whole-hearted; pictorially — an assortment of hair styles; habitually — keeps a diary; dutifully — office typist; energetically — Head of Literary Committee; purposefully — a worker on Eston Juniors' Happy Hour Club; eventually — a worker among the Indians, if the Lord will.

Nesta Owen,
Vancouver, B.C.

Melvin Moorman,
St. Brieux, Sask.

There's something new about Mel Moorman this year and it's the change in his smile. There's something burning in his heart this year . . . and it's evangelism. There's something happier about him this year . . . and it's the reflection of the love of Christ. Mel has enjoyed singing tenor in our Bible School choir and quartet — he's found that there are dividends in using your talents for Jesus. As leader of our Plato Happy Hour Club, he has discovered that children's work can be captivating. As well as winning children's hearts, children have won his heart! His life has been given to the Lord and he is not afraid to sacrifice for Him.

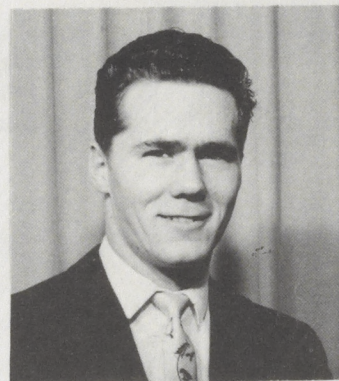

Because Shirley is such a girlish girl, she takes just delight in sewing her own clothes, styling other people's hair, or just being in the kitchen. She's capable and consecrated and has given herself wholeheartedly to the work of Happy Hour. Each week our Eston Juniors sit eagerly on the edges of their benches as Shirley unfolds another exciting chapter of jungle adventure. Not given to extremes, she does insist, however, that the boy's shirts be ironed to perfection. Blending her soprano voice with the rest of the choir and answering the letters of her many friends — these help to make Shirley the kind of individual that she is.

Shirley Shaw,
Stoughton, Sask.

In the three winters that Doug has spent at F.G.B.I., we've yet to see him worried or apprehensive. Most friendly, he takes things in his stride. Doug is no shirker — if the sink needs cleaning, he'll be the first one to volunteer for the job. Characteristically he has devoted his time and talents to Glidden Happy Hour and playing his trumpet in the instrumental quartet. His heart is open for whatever the Lord has for his future. Proud possessor of the curliest thatch on campus, Doug's current expression is, "Well, I guess!"

Douglas Schwartz,
Swift Current, Sask.

Anna Wikman,
Melfort, Sask.

Anna, the only member of the sorority set who drives her own limousine, seems to have been called to "mother" us all. Her keen insight and reception enables her to enter into both the joys and the sorrows of others. She takes pride in supervising the Sunday cooking, but if Anna had her way, we'd all be feasting continually on El Rancho hamburgers and foot-longs. Fiercely loyal to the Lord and his servants, we sometimes laugh when Anna says, "He's my favourite preacher!" Devoted, diligent, desires to serve . . . and we know that her desires will be fulfilled.

Last October, a perky little Corvan made a journey from Spokane, Washington, to Eston, Saskatchewan. Occupants of this vehicle were members of Roemer, Incorporated — Carl, his wife, June, and their four children, Lorae, Cerey, Elsa and Arley. Warmhearted and genial, Carl has become a close personal friend to most of us. He has a deep insight into spiritual things and often sums up passages of Scripture in a few well-thought-out words. Our lofty and long-limbed barber is never in a hurry. Carl keeps foreign missions in mind and we know that the Lord of the harvest has a field for him to reap.

Carl Roemer,
Spokane, Wash., U.S.A.

This Day is Thine

This day is thine, a shining gift from Heaven,
Gleaned for thy use from treasures of time,
Given in trust to hold until the even,
This day is thine, a sacred charge sublime.

This day is thine, to be what thou shalt make it,
Hidden in self or used in service fine;
Then thou shalt bring it back to Him who gave it,
What will it be, this golden day of thine?

This day is thine, thy yesterdays are finished,
Soon will the present join the changeless past;
Will its bright hours be greater for thy keeping
Or by the dreaded rust of waste o'ercast?

This day is thine, there may be not tomorrows,
This day is thine from dawn till setting sun;
May thou at even, like a worthy steward,
Hear in thy heart the Master's words, "Well Done".

President's Address

As the "King's Couriers" entered their second year, we gained two students from the "Magnifiers" class, but to our dismay we lost nine which makes a total of twenty-seven students.

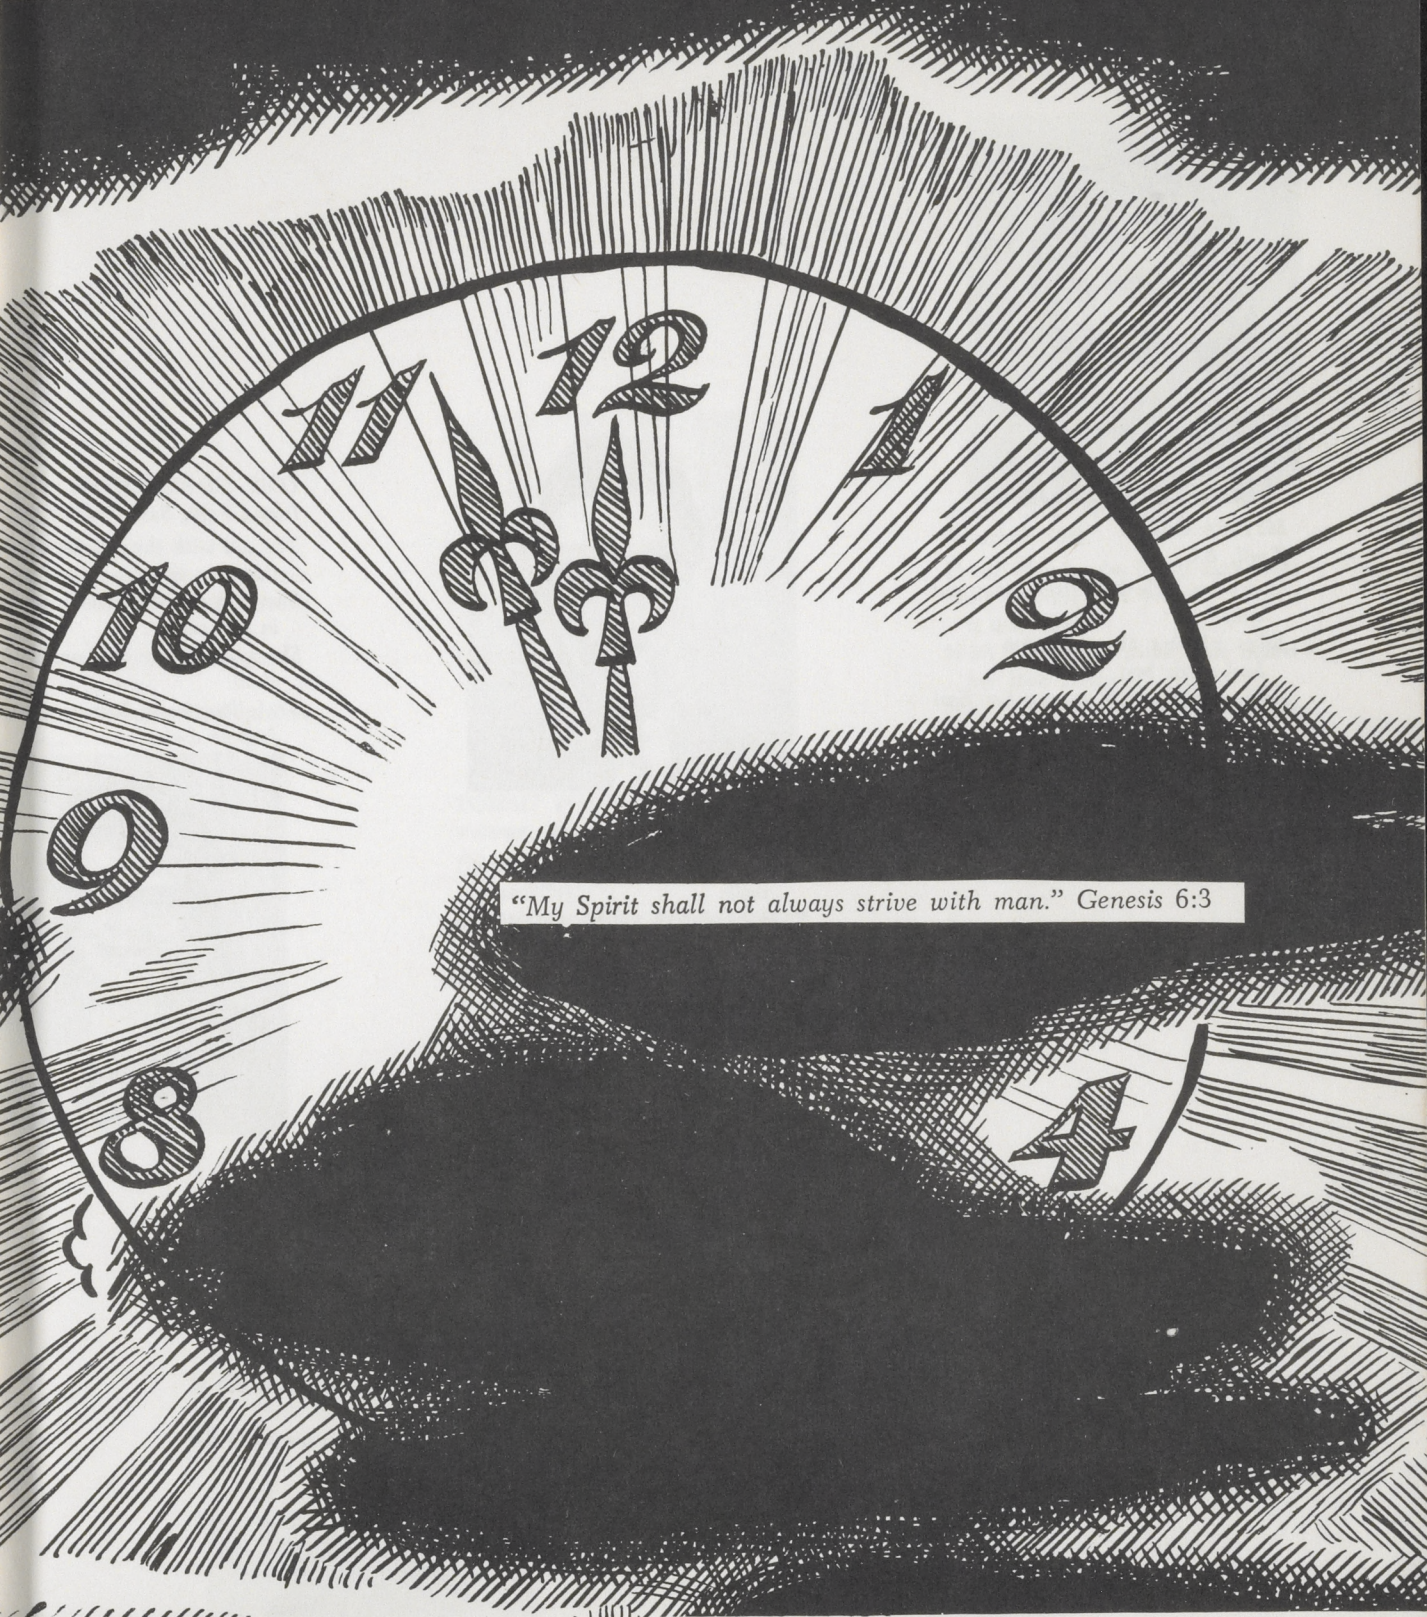

During the summer months, four students went into full time work and fourteen went into part time work, namely D.V.B.S. and camps. The other seventeen went into secular work. The Lord moved upon each one and brought each back with thrilling testimonies of the Lord's blessing upon him.

As a class this year we are much the same, full of fun and frolic, yet all have a burden and a deeper desire for the Lord. As our class name states, we are "King's Couriers" for Jesus Christ. Mark 16:15.

President's Address

The first year class of 1962-63 had been attending classes for nearly one month before they chose their class name. On the morning of October 31st our instructor did not appear to teach the last period in the morning, so we entered into a time of praise and worship to God. The Lord poured out of His Spirit upon that class and it continued on into the noon hour.

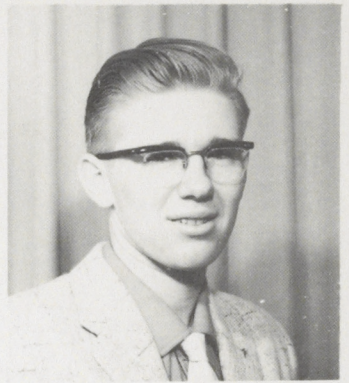

It was in this atmosphere of worship that our name, "Glorifiers," was born.

We, as a class of Christian young people, realize that we are not placed in this world to draw glory unto ourselves. The Bible teaches that we "are bought with a price," the precious blood of Jesus. Therefore, it is our duty to glorify our wonderful Saviour in our lives.

Our class verse is found in I Cor. 6:20, "For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Acknowledgement

F.G.B.I. would like to thank all those who so graciously gave of their time, their talents, and their services to the erection of the new buildings on the campus — the Administration Building and the Pritchard home. Work started in early May with the digging of the basements, and the pouring of the foundations. Then construction began and many were found working long days, so that the building could be completed by October. Throughout the summer it was wonderful to see the Lord's hand in it all. And so, on behalf of the F.G.B.I. faculty, staff and students, we extend our appreciation and thanks, to all those who contributed both in work and donations for the furtherance of God's work.

Hi!
 Just a note to say
 Bible School has been great this year. I've enjoyed a whole some spiritual atmosphere, training in God's Word and terrific fellowship with kids just like you. Plan on being with us next year. See you then!

OUR SUPREME TASK

D. G. Wallace

Our text is found in St. Mark's gospel, the sixteenth chapter and the fifteenth verse. "Go ye into all the world and preach to every creature." The supreme task of the church is not revival. Revival is not God's idea. It is man's. The supreme task of the church of Jesus Christ is to preach the Gospel to every creature, to carry the Gospel around the world, telling men of the love of Christ. He died to save from sin.

Soldiers in an army would be court-martialed if they treated their officers' orders in the cavalier fashion with which we have treated the Great Commission.

To date, we have failed. Half of the people now living have never heard the Gospel once. Many of us have aimed the money I know of one church which spent more than $500,000 in a building program in four years and during the same period spent $15,000 on foreign missions.

This is an hour when we must lift up our heads and look on the mission fields of the world. Because I am acquainted with the field of Japan, I will use it as an example. This country needs our earnest attention and prayers—a field "white unto harvest." The 94 million population only 1/2 of 1% are Christian. There are 95,667 villages with an average population of 300 to 500, 500 of these have any Gospel witness. A wide open door awaits the missionary to Japan. At present we are engaged in All Out evangelism which in turn produces a nucleus or cell of believers which grows into an indigenous church. We have entered the field of labour by establishing an orphanage which ministers to needy children. This institution is recognized by the existing Japanese government and receives partial government aid.

This is an hour that is perhaps the most important and crucial in the history of the church since Pentecost. We see in the three, starting with the fifteenth verse, that God says in effect, "I'm holding you responsible to witness to the heathen and the wicked. If the wicked and heathen turn not from their heathenish and wicked way, then will I not require their blood from your hand. But if you fail to carry the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the Wicked and to the heathen, their blood will be upon your hands."

We have a tremendous responsibility in this day as His people to share the Bread of Life to those who are starving for want of sustenance in other lands. We are our brother's keeper.

In John 4:35-38 Jesus says, in effect, to His disciples, "Look around, get your eyes up and see the ripened harvest, remember the prophet Joel said: 'Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.'" That sickle should not go in when the harvest is not ripe. It must be thrust in before it is too late to be harvested. Many Christians were jolted at the Congress of World Missions held in 1947. They were told today, despite our missionary efforts, fully half the world's population is unevangelized. Also that the task is more now than it was fifty years ago, due to the startling increase in population. Not only so, but financial giving and volunteer missionary service has sharply declined during the last decade.

We must get a new fixation on faith, re-affirm the urgent necessity of an intimate and continuing closer relationship with God. It must be understood by each individual believer that we are truly "labourers together with God," and that fellowship with God and power can only be attained through the abiding fullness of the Holy Spirit working in and through us.

The supreme task of world evangelization calls for a total mobilization of all the resources of the Church of Jesus Christ in terms of men and means, in order that the total evangelization of the world may be achieved during the immediate generation. This demands the total personal commitment of each individual believer. Full committal to Christ, with full intention of both in person and with means, is the answer to this situation. Recognizing that the evangelization of the world is the plainly expressed will of Christ, in reply to His command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature," we must determine one to answer from our hearts, "Yes, Lord."

Christ's last command should be our first concern. Yes, this must be our task supreme.

The Director Speaks

Much work, much thought and much burden blend together weekly to produce an hour called Happy Hour. At times you can calculate, by the loss of hair each week, the date when you will be bald. However, I believe Happy Hour is one of the most rewarding activities of the school. As you pray, plan and prepare each week for club, you are struck by the overwhelming responsibility of the task. It is another opportunity to simply open God's Word to hearts who never hear it from any other source.

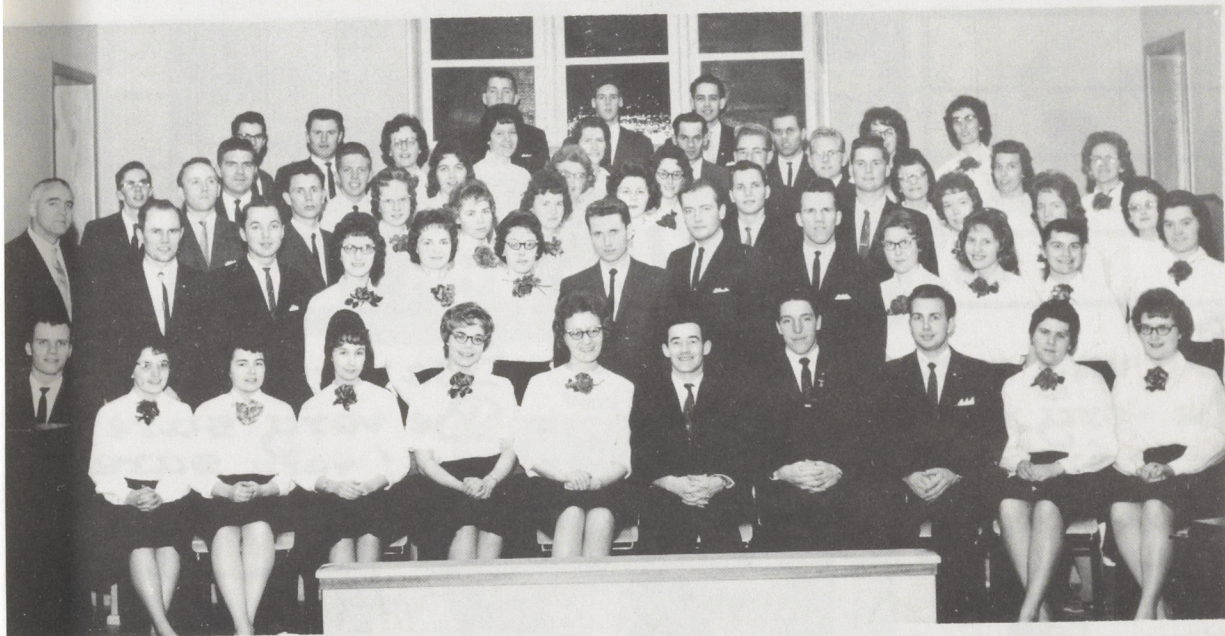

Our aim this year has been to be PREpared and PRAYpared. There are two extremes prevalent today — that of being prepared without much PRAYparation or being PRAYpared without much PREparation and so in His strength we strive to have both making good presentation.

God has been good to us this year giving us record numbers in attendance, hearts that were ready for His great salvation, students who were willing to give their time in service to the Lord.

Student Council

Ellen, would you please read the minutes of the last meeting?" Lightening fast hand raising is the next occurrence as week by John and Dave move and second that the minutes be adopted as read. Business arising out of the minutes follows. Items such as hockey game, under Dave's direction; or the food which Myrna is to order, are checked upon.

The President opens his small, well-worn, brown notebook and reviews several others items under old business. Last minute alterations are made concerning games for the class outing. Keith is to set up a microphone and amplifier on the ice, while Diana and Ellen are to help serve hot chocolate and doughnuts, planned as refreshments between the afternoon events.

Any new business? First under the fire of discussion is a suggestion from the suggestion box. After a few quick words between members of the council as to whether or not coffee is good for you, it is unanimously decided that hot chocolate should be served a week. Discussion then turns to the possibilities of having a Scripture memory contest; starting another ping pong tournament; opening up the recreation room; showing a film once a week; and other such items. Work? Yes. But also one of the greatest opportunities of the school term to serve our dear Lord.

Would someone please move that the meeting be adjourned?

Dear Graduates:

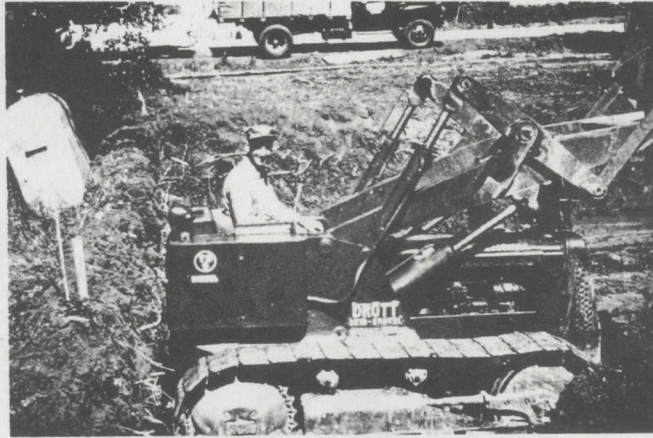

This is our advice and prayer for you as you go forth for Christ. "So then my dearest friends as you have always followed my (Paul) advice — and that not only when I was present to give it — so now that I am far away be keener than ever to work out the salvation that God has given you with a proper sense of awe and responsibility. For it is God who is at work within you giving you the will and the power to achieve His purpose. Do all you have to do without grumbling or arguing, so that you may be God's children, blameless, sincere and wholesome, living in a warped and diseased world, and shining there like light in a dark place." (J. B. Phillips Translation)

Yours for Christ,
G. O. B. Killam, President.
